Importance of Disclosure

- Pursuant of Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance). You must answer the questions fully and accurately.
- Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of term or termination of your contract of insurance.
- The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us.
- In addition to answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied.
- You also have the duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

6. What are the major exclusions under this policy?

The policy does not cover certain losses, such as:

- Your own death or bodily injury due to a motor accident;
- Your liability against claims from passengers in your vehicle; and
- Loss, damage or liability arising from an act of nature i.e. flood, storm or landslide.
- Consequential loss, depreciation, wear and tear, mechanical or electrical breakdown failures or breakages

Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the policy contract for the full list of exclusions under this policy.

7. Can I cancel my policy?

You may cancel your policy at any time by giving written notice to the insurance company. Upon cancellation, you are entitled to a refund of the premium based on pro rata if your vehicle has been insured continuously for more than twelve (12) months or short period rates below if vehicle has not been continuously insured for more than twelve (12) months within the same Company. Any minimum premium paid under the policy is not refundable. Refund premium is allowed provided no claim has arisen during the then current Period of Insurance.

8. What do I need to do if there are changes to my contact/personal details?

It is important that you inform us of any change in your contract/personal details to ensure that all correspondences reach you in a timely manner. You can provide your updated details via our authorised agents, branch office or our customer service.
