Importance of disclosure

- Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance). You must answer the questions fully and accurately.
- Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance.
- The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us.
- In addition to answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied.
- You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

Compensation / Indemnity

- We will pay for compensation on death or injury (Permanent Disablement) in accordance with the "Permanent Disablement Schedule of Compensation" attached to the policy. However for claim such as surgery benefit, you are compensated on reimbursement basis on the actual amount incurred subject to the limit specified in the policy. You cannot make multiple claims on surgery benefit.

Cash Before Cover

- It is fundamental and absolute special condition of this contract of insurance that the premium due must be paid and received by us before cover commences. If this condition is not complied with then this insurance Policy is automatically null and void.

6. What are the major exclusions under this policy?

This policy does not cover death or injury caused by or due to :

- War and allied risks
- Suicide (whether sane or insane) or any attempt thereat
- Pre-existing physical or mental defect or infirmity
- Illness, disease, infections
- Childbirth, miscarriage, pregnancy or any other complications thereof
- Criminal or unlawful acts
- Professional sports activities of any kind
- Radioactive and nuclear weapon material accidents

Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the policy contract for the full list of exclusions under this policy.

7. Can I cancel my policy?

You may cancel your policy by giving written notice to us. Upon cancellation, you are entitled to a refund of the premium less premium based on our short period rates for the period of the policy which has been in force, subject to the minimum premium to be retained by us. No refund premium is allowed if there is a claim under the policy.

8. What do I need to do if there are changes to my contact/personal details?

It is important that you inform us of any change in your contact/personal details to ensure that all correspondences reach you in a timely manner. You can provide your updated details via our authorised agents, branch office or our customer service.
