Tokio Marine celebrates Mid-Autumn Festival with Yayasan Sunbeams Home

Kuala Lumpur, 30 September 2017 – Tokio Marine Life Insurance Malaysia Bhd (Tokio Marine Life) celebrated Mid-Autumn Festival with children from the Yayasan Sunbeams Home. The cheer visit was conducted as part of the Company's corporate social responsibility (CSR) program to express its care and support to the society.

In collaboration with local mural artists, more than 50 volunteers of Tokio Marine Life took part in painting the perimeter wall with the aim to motivate and inspire kids to excel in life. An art corner was also built to keep precious moments of the kids by displaying memorable photos on the wall. Volunteers were kept busy cleaning and refurbishing the charity home.

As the visit fell near the Mid-Autumn festival, Tokio Marine Life employees took the opportunity to celebrate the festival with the children and treated them with mooncakes and gave away lanterns.

"By embedding the values of 'To Be a Good Company', Tokio Marine Life continues to encourage our team members to engage with the communities around us, render support and contribute towards creating a better living environment to them," said Angelina Lim, Head of Human Resources of Tokio Marine Life.

Prior to the visit, The Company conducted a donation drive at its head office to collect books, toys, clothes and usable items for Yayasan Sunbeams Home. The Company also donated 100 new bed sheets to the children.

"Supporting people and the community is a core CSR initiative of Tokio Marine. By looking beyond profit, the existence and sustainability of an organisation is best observed through the value and benefit it brings to the society. Through the engagement and passion brought to the home by our volunteers, we hope our effort will ignite some spark and inspiration to the lives of the children of Yayasan Sunbeams Home," added Ms. Lim.
