

Dear Sir / Madam

Liquidation Proceeds Remain Invested in the Fidelity US Dollar Cash Fund Dis USD

Plan Name: <<Plan Name>>, <<Plan Name>>, <<Plan Name>>

We refer to our email notification regarding “First Tranche of Liquidation Proceeds Switched into the Fidelity US Dollar Cash Fund Dis USD” sent to you on 16 March 2026.

Based on our records, your liquidated proceeds remain invested in the Fidelity US Dollar Cash Fund Dis USD (the “Recommended ILP Sub-Fund”).

You may wish to review your investment in the Recommended ILP Sub-Fund and switch the existing units out to other available TMLS ILP sub-funds of your choice. You can perform the fund switch via the TMLS Policyholders’ Portal. Alternatively, you may contact your adviser for advice or assistance in selecting a suitable fund.

If no action is taken, your investment will remain invested in the Recommended ILP Sub-Fund.

The Recommended ILP Sub-Fund, being a money market fund, generally exhibits lower volatility as it invests in short-term, high quality and diversified debt. This is not intended to be an investment advice or a recommendation regarding the suitability of any particular fund.

If you have already switched out of the Recommended ILP Sub-Fund prior to receiving this notice, no action is required.

We remain fully committed to supporting you and will provide timely and ongoing updates to keep you informed of the progress of your policy proceeds.

Thank you.

Warm Regards,
Tokio Marine Life Insurance Singapore Pte. Ltd.
